

ANNUAL PROGRESS REPORT OF THE TRUST

MARKAZ-E-ADAB-O-SCIENCE, RANCHI

Year 2000- 2001

1. Markaz-E-Adab-O-Science was awarded as Special Study Centre for Minorities by INDIRA GANDHI NATIONAL OPEN UNIVERSITY (IGNOU) vide its letter no. IG/RSD/NOTFICATION/99 dated 9/6/2000 for the courses of CIC, BCA and MCA.
2. IGNOU awarded Special Study Centre (SSC No. 0531-D) first time to any Minority Trust in greater Bihar for high end Computer courses.
3. Secretary Trust Joined as Co-ordinator IGNOU, SSC at its regional centre of Jharkhand in the month of June 2000,
4. A new Internet connection was taken from DOT, VSNL.
5. The first batch of 51 students of One-Year Diploma in Computer Application and Multilingual DTP of NCPUL passed out in the month of June 2000.
6. 40% of the students got jobs even before the declaration of result.
7. Out of 51 students, 16 students got distinction, and rest secured 1st class.
8. Ms. Nayeema Khatoon was the topper of 1st batch.
9. The second batch of One-Year DCA/DTP was started from 1st July 2000.
10. 70 students got admission after entrance test. 20 girls students were enrolled out of 70.
11. The convocation of One-Year DCA/DTP Course was organised on 10-9-2k.
12. Due to the satisfactory performance in one year, Ministry of HRD, NCPUL, has awarded another computer training centre for girls to this Trust, classes of this exclusively girl's centre started from 16/10/2000.
13. The New Computer Centre for Girls namely "Sajjad Institute of Information Technology" (SIIT) was started in a rented house at Doranda, Ranchi.
14. NCPUL supplied 6 HP Pentium III machines with Multimedia, 1 Laser Printer, 1 Inkjet Printer, 1 Modem, Networking and licensed Software for SIIT.

15. An Induction Meeting of IGNOU was held on 27th Jan. 2001 in which 60 students attended.
16. IGNOU provided 51 students for CIC, 27 students for BCA and 10 students for MCA.
17. A symposium on : “ Problems of Modern Education and their Solutions among Muslim Minority in Jharkhand State” was held on 25.02.2001 under the auspices of Markaz-E-Adab-O-Science at Doranda Urdu Library Hall, Ranchi.